

Year 2: Living Things and their Habitats

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Learning Link Back	Sticky Knowledge
plant	A plants is a living thing that grows from the soil.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding the effect of changing seasons on the natural world around 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A habitat is a place that an animal lives. It provides the animal with food, water and shelter.
animal	An animals is a living thing that can move about and depend on plants and other animals as sources of food.
habitat	A habitat is a place that an animal lives. It provides the animal with food, water and shelter.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The 7 life processes are movement, reproduction, sensitivity, nutrition, excretion, respiration and growth.
life processes	There are 7 life processes that living things do - movement, reproduction, sensitivity, nutrition, excretion, respiration and growth.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some things are alive, some are dead and some have never been alive.
living	The condition of being alive.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are plants and animals that live in our local area that depend on each other to survive.
dead	A living thing that is no longer alive is referred to as being dead.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are different plants and animals that live in the wider world that depend on each other to survive.
carnivore	A carnivore is an animal that mostly eats other animals.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Food chains show how living things get their food and how they depend on each other.
omnivore	An omnivore is an animal that feeds on both plants and other animals.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Food chains show how living things get their food and how they depend on each other.
herbivore	An animal that feeds on plants only.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Food chains show how living things get their food and how they depend on each other.
food chain	A food chain shows how each living thing gets its food.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Food chains show how living things get their food and how they depend on each other.
micro habitat	A micro-habitat is a small home environment for plants, animals and insects.		